DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES<sup>1</sup>

On June 30, 2014, Annette Terry (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (“the Program”)<sup>2</sup> alleging that she suffered from a shoulder injury that had been caused-in-fact by an influenza (“flu”) vaccine administered to her on October 10, 2013. See Petition at 1. On August 22, 2014, a Ruling on Entitlement was issued based on respondent’s concession.

On August 27, 2014, respondent filed a Proffer on Award of Compensation. Respondent proffers that, based upon her review of the evidence of record, petitioner should be awarded <sup>1</sup> Because this unpublished ruling contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, the undersigned intends to post this decision on the website of the United States Court of Federal Claims, in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002 § 205, 44 U.S.C. § 3501 (2006). In accordance with the Vaccine Rules, each party has 14 days within which to request redaction “of any information furnished by that party: (1) that is a trade secret or commercial or financial in substance and is privileged or confidential; or (2) that includes medical files or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of privacy.” Vaccine Rule 18(b). Further, consistent with the rule requirement, a motion for redaction must include a proposed redacted decision. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within the requirements of that provision, such material will be deleted from public access.

<sup>2</sup> The Program comprises Part 2 of the National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, 42 U.S.C. §§ 300aa-10 et seq. (hereinafter “Vaccine Act” or “the Act”). Hereafter, individual section references will be to 42 U.S.C. § 300aa of the Act.

$80,000.00. Respondent states that petitioner agrees with the amounts set forth in the Proffer. See Proffer at 1.

Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer. Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards the following:

A lump sum payment of $80,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.

Proffer ¶ II.

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC Appendix B, the clerk of the court SHALL ENTER JUDGMENT herewith.<sup>3</sup>

IT IS SO ORDERED.

III. Form of the Award

Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $80,000.00, in the form of a check payable to petitioner.<sup>1</sup>

Petitioner agrees.

Respectfully submitted,
